

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY

COMMANDING OFFICER
MOBILE MINE ASSEMBLY UNIT ELEVEN
2214 WEST OLD TOM ROAD
GOOSE CREEK, SOUTH CAROLINA 29445-8608

6000
Ser 00/025
10 Jan 01

From: Commanding Officer, Mobile Mine Assembly Unit Eleven
To: Commanding Officer, U.S. Naval Hospital Charleston

Subj: HAZARDOUS MATERIAL CONTAMINATION

Ref: (a) NAVSEA SW551-BO-MMI-010/MK 56

1. The following personnel have been exposed to Antifouling Compound, Navy Formula NO.184, which contains Mercurous Chloride and PCB's (polychlorinated biphenyls). Additionally Cadmium and Cadmium dust were also present during maintenance operations these individuals were exposed to. Reference (a) refers.

2. The following is a list of individuals and their years of exposure. It is requested this letter become a part of the individuals medical record.

| Name                      | SSN | Years of Exposure |
|---------------------------|-----|-------------------|
| Reed, Robert J.           |     | 13                |
| Fross, Albert W.          |     | 10                |
| Patton, David W.          |     | 12                |
| White, William J.         |     | 12                |
| Elmhorst, Benjamin R.     |     | 10                |
| Wisniewski, Gregory P.    |     | 10                |
| Dominquez, John-Carlos V. |     | 3                 |
| Wirth, Jeffrey E.         |     | 1                 |
| Silver, Nicholas C.       |     | 10                |
| Sullivan, James D.        |     | 3                 |
| Crocker, Duane A.         | 3   |                   |

3. Your assistance is greatly appreciated.

M. R. ZAHN